- g. identifying contractual and compliance risks;
- h. assisting the Company with intellectual-property matters;
- i. coordinating with internal business teams and external counsel; and
- j. performing other lawful and reasonable duties consistent with the Employee's position.

The Employee shall perform her duties professionally, diligently and in accordance with applicable law and Company policies.

6. WORKING HOURS

The Employee's ordinary working hours shall be determined in accordance with the Company's applicable policies and applicable law.

The Employee may be required to work additional hours where reasonably necessary due to business requirements, subject to applicable law and Company policy.

Where applicable, overtime, compensatory time or other statutory entitlements shall be handled in accordance with applicable law and Company policy.

7. COMPENSATION

In consideration of the Services provided by the Employee, the Company shall pay the Employee an annual Cost to Company (CTC) of INR 6,00,000.

The compensation structure shall be communicated through the Company's compensation statement and shall be subject to applicable deductions and statutory contributions.

The Employee's salary shall be paid monthly through the Company's payroll system.

The Company shall make deductions required by applicable law, including applicable income-tax withholding and statutory contributions.

8. BENEFITS

Subject to eligibility and applicable Company policies, the Employee may be entitled to benefits including:

- statutory provident fund contributions;
- gratuity where applicable;
- leave entitlements;
- medical insurance, if provided under the applicable employee-benefits programme; and
- other benefits notified by the Company from time to time.

Benefits shall be subject to applicable law, Company policy and eligibility requirements.

9. LEAVE

The Employee shall be entitled to leave in accordance with:

- a. applicable law;
- b. the Company's leave policy; and
- c. the Employee's applicable employment category.

The Employee shall follow the Company's procedures for requesting and obtaining approval for leave.

Statutory leave entitlements shall not be reduced by Company policy where such reduction is prohibited by applicable law.

10. PERFORMANCE AND APPRAISAL

The Employee's performance may be reviewed periodically based on factors including:

- quality of work;
- legal and analytical accuracy;
- compliance with deadlines;
- communication;
- teamwork;
- professional conduct; and
- achievement of assigned objectives.

Performance reviews may be considered when determining salary revisions, bonuses, promotions or other employment decisions, subject to applicable Company policy.

11. COMPANY POLICIES

The Employee shall comply with all lawful Company policies applicable to her employment, including policies relating to:

- information security;
- data protection;
- confidentiality;
- workplace conduct;
- anti-bribery and anti-corruption;
- conflicts of interest;
- acceptable technology use;
- intellectual property;
- leave and attendance; and
- health and safety.

Company policies may be amended from time to time in accordance with applicable law.

12. CONFIDENTIALITY

During employment, the Employee may have access to Confidential Information belonging to the Company, its clients, vendors and business partners.

"Confidential Information" includes, without limitation:

- business plans;
- financial information;
- customer information;
- pricing;
- contracts;
- legal advice;
- internal policies;
- source code;
- technical information;

- product roadmaps;

- trade secrets; and
- non-public regulatory or commercial information.

The Employee shall:

- a. use Confidential Information solely for legitimate Company purposes;
- b. not disclose Confidential Information to unauthorised persons;
- c. protect Confidential Information from unauthorised access or disclosure; and
- d. comply with applicable Company security policies.

These obligations shall continue after termination of employment to the extent permitted by applicable law.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

To the extent permitted by applicable law, intellectual property created by the Employee in the course of and specifically in connection with her employment duties shall belong to the Company, subject to applicable statutory rights.

This may include:

- legal research materials;
- internal compliance documentation;
- contract templates;
- process documentation;
- software or technical materials created as part of assigned duties;
- business documentation; and
- other work product created specifically for the Company.

The Employee shall execute reasonable documents required to confirm the Company's rights in such work product.

Nothing in this clause transfers ownership of intellectual property that the Employee:

- a. owned before joining the Company;
  - b. develops independently outside the scope of employment without using Company resources or Confidential Information; or
  - c. is legally entitled to retain under applicable law.

14. COMPANY PROPERTY

Any suspected loss, unauthorised disclosure or security incident shall be reported promptly to the designated Company contact.

17. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The Employee shall promptly disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest that may materially affect her duties.

The Employee shall not:

- participate in a Company decision involving a personal financial interest without appropriate disclosure;
- misuse her position for personal benefit; or
- accept improper benefits from vendors, customers or other business partners.

The Company shall assess disclosed conflicts and determine appropriate measures in accordance with applicable law and Company policy.

18. OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

The Employee shall obtain prior written approval before undertaking any outside employment, consultancy or professional activity that could reasonably:

- conflict with her duties;
- interfere with working responsibilities;
- involve Company Confidential Information;
- compete with the Company's business; or
- create a material conflict of interest.

Nothing in this clause is intended to prevent lawful activities that do not create such conflicts.

19. NON-SOLICITATION

To the extent permitted by applicable law, during employment the Employee shall not knowingly use Confidential Information to solicit the Company's customers, vendors or employees for an unauthorised competing purpose.

Nothing in this Agreement shall restrict the Employee from exercising lawful professional rights or pursuing future employment after termination in a manner permitted by applicable law.

20. PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The Employee shall conduct herself professionally and respectfully.

The Employee shall comply with applicable workplace conduct requirements and shall not engage in:

- harassment;
- discrimination;
- violence;
- fraud;
- bribery;
- retaliation; or
- other unlawful workplace conduct.

Complaints concerning workplace conduct shall be handled in accordance with applicable law and Company policies.

21. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW

The Employee shall comply with applicable laws and regulations relevant to the performance of her duties.

Where the Employee becomes aware of a material legal or regulatory issue affecting the Company, she shall promptly escalate the matter through appropriate internal channels.

Nothing in this Agreement requires the Employee to comply with an unlawful instruction.

22. REPRESENTATIONS BY EMPLOYEE

The Employee represents that:

- a. the information provided during the recruitment process is materially accurate;
  - b. she has disclosed any material restriction that would prevent her from performing the position;
  - c. she is not knowingly subject to an obligation that would prevent her from lawfully performing her duties; and
  - d. she will not knowingly bring or use a previous employer's confidential information in performing her duties.

23. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

The Company may take appropriate disciplinary action in accordance with applicable law and Company policy where the Employee engages in misconduct or materially breaches her employment obligations.

Depending on the circumstances and applicable law, disciplinary measures may include:

- counselling;
- written warning;
- performance-related corrective measures;
- suspension where legally permissible; or
- termination of employment.

The Employee shall be provided such procedural protections as are required by applicable law and Company policy.

24. TERMINATION BY EMPLOYEE

After confirmation, the Employee may resign by providing 30 days' written notice, unless a different notice period is required under applicable law or agreed in writing.

The Company may, subject to applicable law and Company policy:

- require the Employee to serve the notice period;
  - waive all or part of the notice period; or
  - provide payment in lieu where legally permissible.

25. TERMINATION BY COMPANY

The Company may terminate employment:

- a. during probation in accordance with applicable law and Company policy;
- b. for material breach of this Agreement or applicable Company policy, subject to applicable law and required process;
- c. for misconduct, fraud or wilful violation of Company requirements, subject to applicable law;

- d. due to redundancy, restructuring or business requirements, subject to applicable law; or
- e. for other lawful grounds recognised under applicable law.

Any statutory notice, compensation or procedural requirement shall be complied with.

26. GARDEN LEAVE / NOTICE PERIOD

Where permitted by applicable law and reasonably necessary to protect legitimate Company interests, the Company may direct the Employee not to perform active duties during part or all of the applicable notice period while continuing applicable salary and benefits in accordance with law and Company policy.

During such period, the Employee shall remain subject to confidentiality and other continuing obligations.

27. EXIT OBLIGATIONS

Upon termination or expiry of employment, the Employee shall:

- a. return Company property;
  - b. return or securely delete Company Confidential Information in her possession, subject to applicable legal retention requirements;
  - c. provide necessary handover information;
  - d. return Company documents and records;
  - e. cease representing herself as an employee or authorised representative of the Company; and
  - f. cooperate reasonably with the Company's exit procedures.

28. FULL AND FINAL SETTLEMENT

Following termination, the Company shall process the Employee's final settlement in accordance with applicable law and Company policy, including payment of amounts properly due and treatment of eligible leave, benefits and statutory entitlements.

Any deductions shall be made only to the extent permitted by applicable law.

29. SURVIVAL

The provisions concerning:

- confidentiality;
- intellectual property;

- data protection;
- information security;
- Company property;
- accrued payment obligations; and
- other provisions intended by their nature to survive

shall continue after termination to the extent permitted by applicable law.

30. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws applicable in India, together with applicable state-specific employment laws and regulations governing the Employee's place of employment.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to exclude mandatory statutory employment protections.

31. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Parties shall first attempt to resolve employment-related disputes through appropriate internal grievance or resolution procedures, where applicable.

Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Employee from approaching a statutory authority, tribunal, court or other forum where such right cannot lawfully be restricted.

32. NOTICES

Formal notices under this Agreement shall be provided in writing by hand delivery, recognised courier or email to the contact details designated by the Parties.

The Employee shall promptly notify the Company of any change in contact details.

33. ASSIGNMENT

The Employee shall not assign or transfer her employment obligations to another person.

The Company may assign this Agreement to a successor entity in connection with a merger, restructuring or transfer of the relevant business, subject to applicable law.

34. SEVERABILITY

If any provision is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in effect.

The Parties shall endeavour to interpret or replace the affected provision in a manner consistent with applicable law and the original commercial purpose.

35. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, together with applicable employment policies and documents expressly incorporated into it, constitutes the understanding between the Parties regarding the Employee's employment.

In the event of a conflict, mandatory applicable law shall prevail.

36. AMENDMENTS

Any material amendment to this Agreement shall be made in writing and communicated to the Employee.

Changes to general Company policies may be made in accordance with applicable law and the Company's policy framework.

37. ELECTRONIC EXECUTION

This Agreement may be executed electronically to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Electronic copies shall have the same evidentiary effect as permitted for executed counterparts under applicable law.

38. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Employee confirms that she has had an opportunity to read and understand this Agreement and has been given an opportunity to seek independent advice before signing it.

The Employee acknowledges that this Agreement should be read together with applicable Company policies and mandatory employment laws.
